

CURRICULUM VITAE

Mechthilde Maier

She is Senior Vice President Group Diversity Management at Deutsche Telekom since 2008. Before, she filled various management positions within the company. She holds degrees in Business Management and Administrative Management from University for Applied Sciences, Rosenheim and Government University for Applied Sciences, Dieburg. Her current major project is the implementation of a women's quota at Deutsche Telekom as the first large company in Germany which introduced this measurement.